Field Trip Schedule

October 23 - November 1

Plus Extended Festival Dates

The 32ND Annual
Chicago International Children’s Film Festival
We can’t wait to see you and your students at this year’s Fest!

Join us for our 32nd Anniversary and give your classroom a boost with our diverse selection of curriculum-supported films from every corner of the globe. A trip to the festival will encourage your students to explore world cultures, language studies, creative arts, social studies, history, literature and more.

Each year, the Chicago International Children’s Film Festival welcomes over 30,000 Chicago-area children, adults, and educators. Over 100 filmmakers, media professionals, and celebrities lead pre- and post-screening discussions and interactive workshops to help make media an enriching and participatory experience for Chicago-area kids.

A Field Trip to the Fest

It's easy; the grade recommendations will help you select the best screenings for your students, and the films are scheduled and screened at times and locations across Chicago. For additional screening options, we offer Extended Festival dates so you can easily plan a field trip that best fits your schedule during the average school day.

Educator Resources: A free comprehensive curriculum with learning and assessment plans aligned with Common Core Standards is provided to all groups.

Unique Access: Pre- and post-screening discussions with the filmmakers and trained media education professionals, dig deeper into the film’s themes, storytelling, and production.

Just one film program gives you and your students weeks of exciting and thought-provoking material for discussion, writing assignments, and follow-up exercises.

T for Teamwork

Facets Theater 1
Friday, October 23 | 9:45AM. 80 min.

The characters in this collection of short films know that it’s more fun to work together in order to find solutions to everyday situations. While a seahorse and jellyfish make a great team, they are happy to include a cranky crab, if he can learn to stop his cranky ways! In another short, Trude’s roommate is a monster – for real! But when he learns how to apologize and mean it, he’s much less beastly. In another short, Tweet would love to find the ideal band and toot some tunes. Can the dog, the panda, the squirrel, and the hamster help her to find the right band mates? Teaming up takes everyone to higher ground!

Cis and Pepijn Feed Corn to the Pig | Netherlands
Peanut Butter and Jellyfish | USA
Bear and Bird | USA
Trude’s Flatmate: “Digger” | Germany
Pikkuli Says No! | Finland
Rita and Crocodile: “Zoo” | Denmark
The Mitten | France/Belgium
Ruff Ruff, Tweet, and Dave: “A Singing Adventure” | Singapore/England
Toot the Tiny Tugboat | England

Themes
Teamwork, respecting differences, managing expectations, task management.

---

Everyday Explorations

Facets Theater 2
Wednesday, October 28 | 10:15AM. 75 min.

Anyone ready for adventure? The characters in these shorts are looking to learn more about each other and the world around them. In one short, a boy wants to be a pilot - what does it take to really get in the air? Then, a tree in snappy red boots sure gets around the neighborhood, gathering every possible type of friend as it walks along. In the last short, the beloved film character, Heidi, teaches her new pal the goatherd that you can discipline better with quiet kindness. At first, Peter sees Heidi as an out-of-place, pesky tagalong, but he discovers she’s a real asset, especially as they set out to rescue a lost lamb!

Achoo! | Japan
The Sun of Bagnolet Street | France
Rita and Crocodile: “Zoo” | Denmark
Cis and Pepijn Go Pony Riding | Netherlands
The Flying Boy | Russian Federation
One, Two, Tree | France/Switzerland
Ruff Ruff, Tweet, and Dave: “A Singing Adventure” | Singapore/England
Heidi | France

Themes
Identity, dreaming big, adventure, bravery, new friends, new places, bullying, tolerance.

---

Breakin’ It Down

Music Box Theatre 2
Wednesday, October 28 | 10:15AM. 75 min.

How many critters can fit in a wool mitten? How can the ship get through a narrow slip? What instrument suits the right animal? The characters in these short films learn how to eyeball the big picture and break down tasks to find solutions. In one short, a very busy wolf has his hands full managing his new buddy’s demands. In another short, Trude’s roommate has a birthday coming up - how will he deduce what is inside the package? In the last short, Toot the Tugboat has to size up the situation and get a ship safely to harbor. Persistence and problem solving is easy-peasy for this bunch!

Bing: “Bye Bye” | England
Perfect Houseguest | USA
Ploppers | USA
Lune | France
Ruff Ruff, Tweet, and Dave: “A Singing Adventure” | Singapore/England
Trude’s Flatmate: “The Gift” | Germany
The Mitten | France/Belgium

Themes
Manage expectations, deduction, problem solving, persistence, order and sequence.
Coconut The Little Dragon

Dir. Nina Wels
Music Box Theatre 2
Friday, October 23 | 9:45AM. 95 min.
France Screened in English.

Go on a journey with Coconut the dragon as he learns that independence is more than learning to fly. In a haste to grow up, Coconut runs away from home and quickly develops an unlikely friendship with dragons from opposing tribes, Oscar and Matilda. Along the way, the unlikely trio discovers the key to bringing their disputing tribes together. United by their mission, Coconut, Oscar, and Matilda discover tolerance, bravery, and the true meaning of friendship. Working together is always better!

Themes: Friendship, teamwork, tolerance.

It’s What I Like About You

Facets Theatre 1
Tuesday, October 27 | 9:45AM. 75 min.

New friends may turn out to be best friends, and it’s okay if they are a little different, too. In another film, a little giraffe is befriended by a much older giraffe, but it is the younger who will keep them together as fast friends. In the last short, precocious Elliot’s best friend is the penguin from the zoo. If his scientist dad could get out of his book long enough to notice, that is! Older, younger, different genders, different species, it’s more fun to have a friend who is a little different, if you bring out the best in each other.

Themes: New friends, new adventures, getting along, accepting differences.

Animal Adventures

Logan Center Performance Hall
Thursday, October 29 | 9:45AM. 70 min.

New adventures can be found everywhere! The animals in this collection of shorts are ready to get to know each other and the world around them. In one film, best friends Rita and Crocodile are ready for a pet, but is a hedgehog really a good companion, or should it stay in its habitat? In another short, a mouse has found a wonderful, warm mitten for his winter home, that is until joined by an ever-growing gang of beastie buddies. Finally, get a sneak peek at the new PBS show, “Nature Cat”, as he takes us in his world, where discovery can be found: in a local park, on the shores of Lake Michigan, even on city sidewalks in your neighborhood!

Themes: Animal habitat, animal adventures, new friends, responsibility, caring for others.
Trenk, The Little Knight

Dir. Anthony Power

Music Box Theatre 2
Friday, October 30 | 9:45AM. 95 min.

Austria/Germany Screened in English.

It’s medieval times and ten-year-old Trenk, peasant and property of evil Sir Wertolt, wants to become a knight and free his family. After many adventures, he solves the duchy’s dragon problem and is knighted by the Duke. Now he just has to grow up to become a proper hero! His sword may be heavier than he is, but with persistent practice, he is soon ready to conquer the terrifying dragons. Joining him are his friends: Thekla and Momme. A thrilling adventure of knights, castles, duels, and dragons, told with humor, twists, and turns. Conflict resolution through brains over brawn is what wins the day in the end! Based on the beloved book series.

Themes Bravery, persistence, teamwork, adventure, identity, not taking the easy route.

Vistas and Visions

Music Box Theatre 1
Tuesday, October 27 | 11:45AM. 75 min.

Doers and dreamers wanted! Join these individuals on their journeys as they discover new places and new faces. Little Cousteau longs for a big adventure in the deep blue sea, just like his idol, Jacques Cousteau. Does he even have to leave his bedroom? In another film, a leafy tree goes for a walk, helping others along the way and learns to really ‘branch out’ of his back yard! In the last film, the town character becomes the town hero, striving to achieve his goals of new heights, new perspectives, new views!

Themes Identity, dreaming big, adventure, bravery, new friends, new places.

Thinkin’ It Thru

Cervantes Institute
Tuesday, October 27 | 11:45AM. 75 min.

The characters and situations in this collection of shorts are curious kids and creatures! What happens when your dwelling must expand to include every-increasing guests? And in the last short, Percival Pilts craves a perch on his stilts. Could he go to even greater heights? Trying a new perspective of wonder and sizing up a situation is the task at hand for these characters!

Themes Manage expectations, deduction, dreaming big.
That’s What Friends Are For!

Logan Center Performance Hall
Wednesday, October 28 | 9:45AM. 75 min.

The characters in this collection of short films know that it’s more fun to get along in order to work as a team! In the first short, it’s not easy being the new kid in class, but when one person steps up, others follow her lead. In another short, a child and new cat pal learn to adapt to their new environment, working as a team. In the last short, cross-cultural differences very soon work themselves out, with the kind help of a guiding hand.

Themes: Teamwork, respecting differences.

Persistence and Pluck

Facets Theater 2
Thursday, October 29 | 10:15AM. 75 min.

When presented with a challenge, the characters in this collection of animated shorts put their thinking caps on and try-try-again! In a play on the Aesop’s fable The Fox and the Crow, these guys are far from being a “one take” crew on the film set. In another short, a boy just wants a little nap, that is, if his pals’ series of problem-solving attempts will let him. In the last short, a resourceful bird has crash-landed in Africa, far from his usual migratory pattern. Can he and his new buddies find a way to reunite him with his flock? After a series of attempts, it is all systems go!

Themes: Figuring It out, deduction, problem solving, persistence, resourcefulness, friendship.

Halloween: Tricks and Treats

Music Box Theatre 1
Monday, October 26 | 9:45AM. 75 min.

Tricks and treats, new identities, aliens, monsters, all at a snap of your fingers! It’s Freaky Friday for the feline and canine cantankerous duo in one film, as they realize that being nice to each other might be the only way to reverse the damage. Can these enemies put their differences aside in time to get their voices back? Then, when is too much of a sweet treat just too much? In another short, can Trude’s roommate mend his monster ways? In the last short, while a classmate picks on new girl Anabelle for wearing a funny mask, it only takes one move of solidarity on Bethany’s part to rally the students around her.

Themes: Halloween, monsters, identity.
French Flights

Music Box Theatre 2
Monday, October 26 | 10:15AM. 85 min.

The characters in this Francophone program are on the move! Joe, a deaf boy, befriends a space robot named Spanneroo, who has come crashing down to Earth. Spanneroo proves to be a maestro when it comes to fixing things, and soon takes Joe and his pals on an adventure that’s out of this world! In another short, Dimitri is off his migration flight path and lands in Africa. He only needs a little help from his new friends to get reunited with his parents. Bon voyage!

The Sun of Bagnolet Street | France
La Fontaine Turns Film-makers: The Crow and the Fox | France/Belgium
The Tie | Belgium
Spanneroo and Joe | France
Dimitri in Ubuyu | Belgium/France/Switzerland

Subtitled films in this program will not be read aloud.

Communication Station

Logan Center Screening Room
Friday, October 23 | 9:45AM. 85 min.

Music Box Theatre 1
Tuesday, October 27 | 9:45AM.

The friends in these short films might have some differences, but those differences are welcome and celebrated. In one film, Belinda and Alexander are friends who are both deaf. The pair want to go to the local music club to jam with their favorite artist, despite any obstacles. In the last short, a satellite-repairing robot crash-lands in the French countryside. Spanneroo and Joe are fast friends, but can they communicate with buddy Susie and the gang, through wordless deeds? They band together for an unimaginable adventure!

Mr. Violet | Iran
Cats & Dogs | Germany/Switzerland
Trude’s Flatmate: “The Gift” | Germany
Air-Mail | Switzerland
Jean-Michel the Woodland Caribou | France/Belgium
Dreaming of Peggy Lee | England
Spanneroo and Joe | France

Themes Fresh animation from France and French-speaking countries.

Molly Moon and the Incredible Book of Hypnotism

Dir. Christopher N. Rowley

Facets Theater 1
Monday, October 26 | 11:45AM. 115 min.

England Screened in English.

Plucky Molly enjoys her family of friends in a small-town English orphanage, that is until she finds a book that gives her the power of hypnosis. When her talented best friend, Rocky, is adopted, Molly sets her sights on a new, big-city adventure: having fun and becoming a huge TV star! But is the false fame worth it, at the expense of true friendship? Based on the phenomenally popular best-selling book series, starring Raffy Cassidy (Snow White and the Huntsman, Disney’s Tomorrowland), and featuring Oscar-nominated Emily Watson and Celia Imrie (Nanny McPhee).

Themes Tests of friendship bonds, independence, adventure, honesty, measures of success.
Halloween: Monsters, Masks & Mixups

Music Box Theatre 1
Wednesday, October 28 | 11:45AM. 85 min.
Logan Center Performance Hall
Friday, October 30 | 9:45AM. 85 min.

Tricks and treats, new identities, aliens, monsters! In one film, when is too much of a sweet treat just too much? In one short, while a classmate picks on new girl Anabelle for her wearing a funny mask, it only takes one move of solidarity to rally the students around her. In another short, one spunky girl finds she has the magic power to "freeze" the local bullies in their tracks. Can she restore order in their small town and right their wrongs? In the final short, a family’s camping trip goes awry when Simon’s sister inadvertently wishes herself into a hen! It will take some quick moves on Simon’s part to restore this vacation gone wrong.

Themes
Halloween, monsters, identity.

---

Character, Commitment, Community

Cervantes Institute
Friday, October 30 | 11:45AM. 85 min.

Learning how to rely on oneself, accomplish dreams, to overcome fears, and help keep a community together, it is all happening for these characters! In one film, older brother Ernest and his sister Colette move to the French countryside as World War II breaks out. Ernest finds new strengths while getting used to his new circumstances, from standing up to a threatening boar, to standing up to the local bully. Resistance starts with one step! In another short, Katie’s parents find they need to relocate from their beloved seaside home when silly “city slickers” want to takeover. They’ll even lose the local store! Not if resourceful Katie puts her thinking cap on and rallies some neighbors. The plucky protagonists in these short films are self-reliant and unstoppable!

Themes
Resourcefulness, self-reliance, overcoming circumstances, teamwork.

---

Step It Up

Facets Theater 1
Friday, October 23 | 11:45AM. 90 min.

The characters in these short films find themselves in a pickle! How to solve a problem might be as easy as apologizing like you mean it, says Trude to her monster roommate. Then, in rural Colombia, Nicole travels to a distant spring to fetch some fresh water for herself and her family. But on the way back home something unexpected happens. And in the final film, a family’s camping trip goes awry when Simon’s sister inadvertently wishes herself into a hen! It will take some serious attempts to restore this vacation gone wrong. The characters in these short films are up for the challenge!

Themes
Problem solving, decision making, consequences, getting along.
Needs Vs. Wants

Cervantes Institute
Monday, October 26 | 11:45AM. 90 min.

It's not easy to balance needs and wants, nor to understand which realistic expectations to strive for. In one film, new kid Kamron is obsessed with getting a pair of sneakers for his Persian New Year's present. But will the new kicks really make a difference? In another short, Ella is longing to get a new look, like the cool girls. That is, until her parents take her shopping. In the final short, Myna is on holiday with country cousins who don’t join her in being disappointed in the lack of success getting an Xbox upgrade. Instead, Dani and Aran encourage her to use her imagination and bargaining skills for another pursuit, entirely: her love of reading.

The Frog with Holey Shoes | France
The Sweet Porridge | Germany
Class Trip | Sweden
The Magic Shoes | USA
Catwalk | Sweden
Myna and Asterix | India

Themes
Managing expectations, peer pressure, identity.

---

The Outlaw League

Dir. Jean Beaudry

Cervantes Institute
Friday, October 23 | 9:45AM. 105 min.

Canada Screened in French, with English subtitles.

When an old town baseball field is shut down, a small group of kids work tirelessly to reopen it and reclaim their right to play. At the same time, Nicolas, the ringleader of the group, struggles with his grandfather’s illness and the loss of his father. Can the ragtag team come together and clean up the ball field, overcoming the objections of the local mayor? When Nicolas is the mastermind, anything can happen!

Themes
Persistence, teamwork, friendship, coping with parental loss, intergenerational goals.

---

Secret Society of Souptown

Dir. Margus Paju

Facets Theater 1
Wednesday, October 28 | 9:45AM. 110 min.

Estonia/Finland Screened in Estonian, with English subtitles.

Mari, Olav, Sadu, and Anton are a part of the “Secret Society of Souptown,” whose sole purpose is to go on adventures and solve mysteries. When a magic potion starts making adults act like children, ten-year-old Mari takes charge and her friends must work together to find the antidote to save the town. Perhaps a clue is in the old book that Mari’s grandfather mentions, hidden by their scientist ancestor during the German occupation in World War II. The gang must first get to the remaining clues to save the day. But they only have 48 hours!

Themes
Teamwork, problem solving, defending viewpoint and supposition, leadership.
Field Trips Grades 4-6

Mr. Twister on Stage

Dir. Barbara Bredero
Facets Theater 1
Thursday, October 29 | 9:45AM, 90 min.
Netherlands Screened in Dutch, with English subtitles.

School is back in session for everyone's favorite substitute teacher, "Mr. Twister". This time, class is hitting the stage for a fresh take on an old school play. Meanwhile, Tobias is studying for the next grade's entrance exam. He is regretting having to leave his favorite teacher's homeroom. Will he be able to accept change and move on? And will Principal Dreus crush the whole class' theatrical dreams before it's too late?

Themes Perserverance, intergenerational relationships, theater.

The Games Maker

Dir. Juan Pablo Buscarini
Music Box Theatre 2
Thursday, October 29 | 10:15 am, 125 min.
Argentina/Canada/Italy Screened in English.

Ten year-old Ivan's birthday will change his life forever when a mysterious message starts him on a game-making journey. When his parents inexplicably disappear, Ivan is sent to live in a mysterious school, encountering a new friend, who helps him get to the next game-making round of competition, masterminded by the evil genius, Morodian. Now that the stakes are high, Ivan must use his ingenuity to surpass obstacles, to reclaim his rightful heritage as a Games Maker. Featuring Joseph Fiennes (Shakespeare in Love, Elizabeth) as Morodian.

Themes Persistence, strategy, problem solving, teamwork, dreaming big, new friends.

No Stopping Us

Cervantes Institute
Thursday, October 29 | 9:45AM, 90 min.

The characters in this collection of animated shorts from French-speaking countries are up for adventure! In one film, the Sun is particularly Gallic as he gallivants down the streets of the town. In another short, a blond boy and his "mouton" are out on a spree, letting their fancy take flight. In the last short, older brother Ernest and his sister Colette move to the French countryside when World War II breaks out. Ernest finds new strengths while getting used to his new circumstances, from standing up to a threatening boar, to standing up to the local bully. Resistance starts with one step! The plucky protagonists in these short films are unstoppable!

Themes Fresh Animation from France and French-speaking countries, Occupation in France in WWII.
Birds of Passage

Dir. Olivier Ringer

Facets Theater 2
Friday, October 30 | 10:15 am. 100 min.
Belgium  Screened in French, with English subtitles.

Cathy and Margaux are two unusual friends with an unusual problem: Cathy’s duckling thinks Margaux is his mother. While the girls know that Margaux must care for the duck from now on, her parents worry that her muscular dystrophy will make it impossible. For Cathy, however, her dear friend’s physical challenges are not the big issue that everyone else makes them out to be. So, despite the fact that the duckling is not viewed as a proper pet (rather as a meal to everyone else) the girls will set out on a mission: to stop at nothing to save him from his doom on a breeding farm. Will Cathy and Margaux be able to rescue their pet before it’s too late?

Themes Getting unlimited support, friendship, sharing, empathy

Science Views

Facets Theater 2
Monday, October 26 | 10:15AM. 85 min.

The scientists and adventurers in this collection of documentary shorts explore such diverse concepts as light pollution, basic marine biology research techniques, and the human physical responses to fears and phobias. Join German and Australian scientists, teens, and tweens as they take adventures as far away as city life and the Australian reef!

- Nine-and-a-half: “Bright Night - How LightPollutes the Environment” | Germany
- The Light Elephant | Germany
- Bushwhacked! | Australia
- Checker Tobi: “The Fear and Phobia Check” | Germany

Themes Earth science, impact of humans on environment, marine biology, human physiology.

The Boy in the Mirror

Dir. Guilherme Fiúza Zenha

Cervantes Institute
Friday, October 30 | 9:45 am. 90 min.
Brazil  Screened in Portugese, with English subtitles.

It’s the 1930’s in a ten-year-old Brazilian boy’s home town. Fernando just wants to have fun, but his parents insist he tried to be more serious. One day, when looking in the mirror, Fernando meets his reflection, who steps beyond the looking glass and becomes his twin image. Here’s the key to getting out of his responsibilities! While the magic twin now attends school for Fernando and deals with his parents, Fernando goes out on adventures with his clubhouse buddies. When things go awry, will the scamp own up and apologize to family and friends? And meanwhile, the “twin” is getting out of hand. The old adage just might be true: “be careful what you wish for.”

France/Belgium  Screened in English, dubbed.

Inspired by a true story and the beloved French children’s book, Zarafa is an adventure gorgeously animated and beautifully told. Maki, a young African boy, escapes the clutches of an evil slave trader. After outwitting his captors, Maki befriends Hassan, a soldier from Alexandria, and Zarafa, a giraffe, who help him find his good friend Soula and return to his village in Africa. With the help of old and new techniques, Maki and his friends also attempt to destroy an evil trader and help Zarafa escape from her captivity in a French zoo. The characters in Zarafa perform tremendous acts of courage while crossing Africa and Europe. Together they create a fun and adventurous story that will keep you on the edge of your seat!

First Responders

Facets   Theater 2
Tuesday, October 27  |  10:15AM. 85 min.

Bullying is everywhere and it’s important to know how to deal with each situation. Eleven-year-old Ho’onani dreams of leading her dance troupe at her school. That is, until she’s picked on by her peers. Inspired by a teacher who was also once bullied, Ho’Onani lets nothing stand between her and her dreams. In another film, we meet Nicky: she loves to dance, goof around with her friends, and spend time with her family. She also happens to be living in poverty. When picked on at school, Nicky takes control and presents a class project on the state of poverty and how she and her family deal with their daily challenges. Then, in a small town, a girl has new magic powers to right some wrongdoings by the town bullies. While the fanciful solutions and real-life challenges are familiar to everyone, the responses these characters fashion are unique and inspiring!

Themes  Identifying negative stereotypes, communicating issues effectively.

Gender Journey: Boys - Going the Distance

Cervantes Institute
Monday, October 26  |  9:45AM. 90 min.

Each boy in these short films is looking to find his home, their family, their identity, their dream. Ever since they moved from Romania to Austria for work, Ionut doesn’t get to see his parents. When circumstances test the bond between him and his parents, he sets out to find them. Then, while Chinese-Dutch Feifei Hua is undocumented, it doesn’t mean he’s not a normal kid. Looking for proper papers is a journey in and of itself, where he and his mother triumph in the end. In the final doc short, Andrew looks to be a leader of his youth marching band. Does he have what it takes?

Themes  Identity, managing expectations, fraternal bonds, leadership.

While the characters in these short films are dreamers, they focus on their goals and the bigger picture at all times. Twelve-year-old Mo Jones is a bow tie creative genius with plans to make it as a full-fledged fashion designer by the age of 20. Watch Mo and his family work under pressure to make 100 bows in time for a Saturday market that could— if they make it—boost his presence in the Memphis area. In another documentary short, Memy is a Muslim Turkish-German girl who balances respect for her culture and self-expression, while getting content together for her blog.

Gender Journey: Girls with Grit

Facets Theater 2
Friday, October 23rd | 10:15AM. 90 min.

The strength to follow one's dreams is at the core of every girl's strong character. In one film, Flor is determined to earn her own saxophone in her Oaxacan town's music-loving community. In another documentary short, how can a girl express her interests while respecting her culture? It's not easy being Muslim and Turkish and German at the same time! In another short, Nora recounts the events that required her and her family to flee from Syria to their new home in Jordan. Though life has yet to return to normal, she finds comfort in her music, drawings, and dreams of one day opening a school. In another short, Rubina Ali was a star in the Oscar hit film, “Slumdog Millionaire”. Now back in the Bandra slum in Mumbai, Rubina’s enthusiasm, energy, and drive will help her realize her acting dreams.

The documentaries in this collection explore making your voice heard, coming together as a team to accomplish an outcome. Has the World Cup in Brazil really led to an improvement for the children in the surrounding area? Gabriel makes a film and interviews peers to find out the impact. In another film, rural school children have actually won a place in the national children’s parade, validating their civic pride in the process. In the last doc short, gifted Taiwanese school children have given themselves a project - how to learn to speak to an adult and command the respect they deserve. They then launch an investigation into the reasons behind a local government initiative and contact their local councilors in an effort to make changes in their school. Coming together and constructive dialogue is the first step to any civic engagement!

French Animation 2015
Music Box Theatre 2
Tuesday, October 27 | 10:15AM. 90 min.

The best in this season’s animated shorts from the French-speaking world await! In one short, a mysterious musician’s double bass performance draws everyone to his sunrise concert on a watery stage. Then, the colors of an old-fashioned airmail letter are the palette for an upbeat animation featuring a muscular boxer, his pet goldfish, an enamored neighbor, and her mischievous black cat. Finally, when a single mother brings home her new boyfriend, Hugo’s life is changed forever. With stunning animation and deep emotion, the film details the family’s transformation.

Themes Fresh animation from France and French-speaking countries.
