Connecting Kids and Families to the best Movies from around the world.

Welcome to the 33rd annual Chicago International Children's Film Festival, one of the top film festivals for kids ages 2-17 in the world! This year's festival features the absolute best in world cinema – hundreds of films that will inspire and delight Chicago families. From October 28 through November 6, the Festival will spark the imagination, inspire critical thinking and expand the world views of the next generation of Chicago cinephiles. The Festival presents 289 films from 45 countries, selected from over 2,500 entries.

The Festival engages kids of all ages in post-screening Q&As with filmmakers, interactive workshops with special guests, peer-to-peer dialogues, filmmaker-led seminars, and the Festival's Children and Youth Juries.

As the first Oscar-qualifying children's film festival in the world, the Festival is a rare opportunity for Chicagoans to experience award-winning global films before anyone else and as they should be seen: on the big screen!

Suggested Age Ranges and Program Guidance

All programs are listed with age range suggestions. Program guidance is also provided with symbols for programs that contain profanity (P), violence (V), or mature themes (M) relative to the suggested age range of the program.

AGE RANGE 2 · 3 · 4 · 5 6 · 7 · 8 · 9 10 · 11 · 12 · 13 · 14 · 15 · 16 +

These suggestions are based on our experience and knowledge, but we recognize and embrace that children respond to films in different ways, so we leave the final decision to you. Choose the films you feel are most suitable for your children and enjoy them together.

Subtitles? No Problem!

Films are presented in their original languages with English subtitles unless otherwise indicated. The subtitles are read aloud by media educators for programs ages 7 and younger.

Subtitles will be read aloud.

Filmmaker Appearances

The Festival welcomes dozens of international filmmakers each year providing unique access into the films' themes, storytelling, and production. If a filmmaker is present for their screening, a Q&A will follow at the end of the program.

2016 Festival Workshops

The 33rd annual Chicago International Children's Film Festival offers new opportunities for children and youth to grow as active viewers of media, fostering a lifelong appreciation of film as art. Best of all, the following seminars, screenings, and workshops are educational and entertaining. It's a win-win! Space is limited and registration must be done in advance. Workshop fees are non-refundable.

Animate This! Stop-Motion Animation

w/ Meghann Artes

Saturday, October 29 2:30-5:00PM

Facets

1517 W. Fullerton Ave., Chicago IL

Ages 8+, Limit 15 children.

Registration: $35 non-member $30 Facets members

Learn how to create stop-motion animation and other special effects from award-winning Festival Filmmaker, Meghann Artes.

Workshop participants will become familiar with easy-to-use and innovative special effects techniques, like the ones used by filmmaker Michel Gondry and in music videos by Peter Dinklage, Kanye West, and Coldplay. With these tips and tricks there is no end to the imaginative stories that you can create on screen.

Meghann Artes is an Emmy and Peabody award-winning filmmaker and animator who has worked with Sesame Street, Dreamworks, Nickelodeon, Bix Pix, Nick Jr., NBC, and ABC. Her short films have enjoyed success at festivals across the country.

Takeaways:

- Learn about various special effects
- Create a stop-motion animation sequence

Light It Up: Costume Character Creation

w/ Jeff Sweeton

Saturday, October 29 10:00AM-4:30PM

Ages 8+, Limit: 15

Facets

3733 N. Southport Ave., Chicago IL

Registration: $45 non-members $40 Facets members

Learn how to create fully formed characters – costumes and all – with filmmaker and tech extraordinaire, Jeff Sweeton.

Workshop participants will bring characters to life from their favorite films or from their own imaginations, just in time for Halloween! After developing their characters, participants will design costumes, weaving L.E.D.s through fabric, cutting cardboard armor plating, or using whatever their imagination can muster to create that 21st century appeal! Each newly created character will then give an interview about who they are. Please note $5 materials fee.

Sewing skills not required, only your imagination!

Takeaways:

- Design and create costumes
- Learn basic circuitry to light up the costume
- Record video interviews with the imagined characters

Be Your Own Hero: Computer Animation Meets Live Action

w/ George Berlin

Sunday, October 30 10:00AM-1:00PM

Facets

1517 W. Fullerton Ave., Chicago IL

Age 8+, Limit 10

Registration: $35 nonmembers

$30 Facets members

Ever wondered what it would be like to be an animated character? Now you can with the technological wizardry of animator and educator, George Berlin.

Using special software, participants will use their imaginations to create computer animated characters and environments. Participants will then act, dance, and groove through their short scenes. No teleportation skills needed! With motion capture technology, participants are able to be animated and live-action at the same time.

Takeaways:

- Create characters and sets with special software
- Write and create a mini-scene between two characters
- In pairs, kids will "act out" their scenes using real-time animation

A link and password will be emailed following the workshop with footage documenting their real-time projects.

Telling a Story Through Computer Animation

w/ Jeff Sweeton

Friday, November 4 10:00AM-4:30PM (CPS in-service day)

Facets

1517 W. Fullerton Ave., Chicago IL

Ages 7+ Limit: 10

Registration $45 nonmembers, $40 Facets members

Learn how to tell compelling stories through animation and computer programming with filmmaker and tech extraordinaire, Jeff Sweeton.

Like playing video games, but you'd rather tell a story of your own? Start out by learning character development and storytelling basics, and then bring these ideas to life with coding fundamentals. In the end, you will program your very own animated storyboard – or as we call it in the biz, an animatic.

Takeaways:

- Learn principals of storytelling
- Computer programming and coding language
- Universal relationships of characters within media
- Basic drawing
- Animatic creation

iPad Movie Magic

w/ George Berlin

Saturday, November 5 10:00AM-1:00PM

Facets

1517 W. Fullerton Ave., Chicago IL

Age 10+ Limit 15

Registration: $35 nonmembers, $30 Facets members

Learn how to make your own iPad movie with animator, educator, and all-around wacky dude, George Berlin.

It's easy to take photos and videos with an iPad, but how about making a movie? Workshop participants will learn filmmaking fundamentals, from cinematography to editing and sound design using the Pinnacle Studio app. Add some imagination to the mix, and you've got the perfect recipe for a fantastic movie!

Please note: Participants provide their own iPads and will need to download Pinnacle studio ($3 fee) before the workshop.

Animating the Amazon

w/ Alois Di Leo

Saturday, November 5 2:00-5:00PM

Facets

1517 W. Fullerton Ave., Chicago IL

Ages 9+ Limit 15

Registration: $35 non-members, $30 Facets members

Learn how animation comes to life with award-winning Brazilian animator and Festival filmmaker, Alois Di Leo.

If you're using a pen and paper, clay, or even a computer, animation is a complex task. Workshop participants will get an in-depth overview of the animation process, from art direction to lighting and music scoring. Then, using basic materials, participants will create stop-motion animation sequences inspired by the Amazon rainforest.

Takeaways:

- Basics of stop-motion paper animation
- Soundtrack/voiceover dubbing
- Lighting basics

Building Robots: Animatronics in Film

w/ Jeff Sweeton

Sunday, November 6 9:30AM-5:30PM

Facets

1517 W. Fullerton Ave., Chicago IL

Ages 11+ Limit 15

Registration: $35 nonmembers, 30 Facets members

Learn how to conceptualize and build working animatronics with filmmaker and tech extraordinaire, Jeff Sweeton.

Interested in robots? Workshop participants will be introduced to electronic and circuit building techniques used to build animatronics for films. Then, using raw components, participants will create their own animatronic puppets with moving parts.

Takeaways:

- Imagine and build an animatronic character or machine out of cardboard and other materials
- Design the electronic circuitry to make moving parts or sections that light up

Litterbugs: Found Object Character Creation

w/ Peter Stanley-Ward

Sunday, November 6 2:00-4:30PM

Facets

1517 W. Fullerton Ave., Chicago IL

Ages 9+ Limit 15

Registration: $35 nonmembers, $30 members

Learn how to design characters from everyday objects with Festival filmmaker and recipient of Creative England's "Emerging Talent" award, Peter Stanley-Ward.

Are you an aspiring inventor? A budding filmmaker? Or a fan of quirky sci-fi heroes like Wall-E? Workshop participants will take some pointers from the budding genius heroine from Festival film, Litterbugs. Combined with methods used by major studios, they will learn how to conceptualize and build an actual character. Starting with pen and paper, participants will then create a storyboard, and film a sequence with their own "litterbug."

Takeaways:

- Character creation
- Storytelling fundamentals
- Basic building techniques
- Storyboard development

Pitch Perfect: Peer-to-Peer Presentation

w/ Kimberly Wright

Sunday, November 6 10:30AM-12:00PM

Music Box Theatre Lounge

3733 N. Southport Ave., Chicago IL

Ages 18+ Limit: 30

Registration: $25 nonmembers, $20 Facets members

Can you tell me how to get to Sesame Street? Film producer Kim Wright has the directions! In this presentation and Q+A dialogue, get the road map from the expert: from the pitch processes to commissioning deal guidelines for independent filmmakers. How does a theme or issue fit with the premise and concept from a social-emotional/curriculum standpoint for the age? What are standard structure episode "blocks"? What might be interstitial content? What should a live-action sequence include versus animation, music video? What are do's (and don'ts) for an RFP ("request for pitch")? It's a two-way street to learn from the world-wide leaders in children's television.

Pitch Perfect: Tweens & Teens Presentation

w/ Kimberly Wright and Kim Diaz

Sunday, November 6 2:00-3:30PM

Facets

1517 W. Fullerton Ave., Chicago IL

Ages 13+ Limit 35

Registration: $25 nonmembers, $20 members

Interested in learning how a national leader in television gets their shows together from independent filmmakers? Film producer Kim Wright can tell you how! If you have ever been curious how to get a show on national tv, learn the basics with the expert. A TV show gets a variety of independent film and tv segments to include from many different sources, and it starts with a project "pitch" from the filmmaker. Learn the "do's and don'ts" for a good pitch, including a variety of formats: from live-action, to animation, to music video format. Sesame Street is not just for the little ones, as Usher, Gwen Stefani, and Pharrell can tell you.

Kim Wright joined the Workshop five years ago as the Film Producer, commissioning live action, animated, and mixed media short films for Sesame Street. She spent the majority of her career as a daytime television producer, working for Telepictures, NBC, and Paramount Pictures, and producing several national daytime talk shows Her experience has allowed her to help make viewers dreams come true, and help young people tackle local issues with a global perspective.

Trolls

From the creators of Shrek comes DreamWorks Animation's Trolls, a smart, funny and irreverent comedy about the search for happiness, and just how far some will go to get it. This hilarious film transports audiences to a colorful, wondrous world populated by the overly optimistic Trolls, who have a constant dance in their step and a song on their lips, and the comically pessimistic Bergens, who are only happy when they have trolls in their stomachs.

After the Bergens invade Troll Village, Poppy (Kendrick), the happiest Troll ever born, and the overly-cautious curmudgeonly Branch (Timberlake) set off on a journey to rescue her friends. Together, this mismatched duo embarks on a rescue mission full of adventure and mishaps – trying to tolerate each other long enough to get the job done.

Pat & Mat

Dir. Marek Benes

Facets Theater 1

Sunday, October 30 | 9:30AM 82 min

Czech Republic Nonverbal

Hapless handymen Pat and Mat are setting out on a series of home improvement adventures! These strung-together mini-shorts each have teachable moments and valuable lessons as the bungling brothers must overcome obstacles. Working together, the duo seeks solutions to everyday issues (some of them self-created). Silly, slapstick comedy ensues, whether the duo is tasked with plumbing, installing, building, or vacuuming – these over-achievers will get it done.

Brothers of the Wind

Dir. Gerardo Olivares

Facets Theater 1

Sunday, October 30 | 1:00PM 98 min

Austria Screened in English

Independent, 13-year-old Lukas lives in the grand and imposing mountain valleys of the Austrian Alps. When he finds a young, orphaned Golden Eagle, he vows to protect "Abel" from danger – including his own father, Keller, a bird hunter. Recently widowed, Keller and Lukas are at wildly at odds in coming to terms with their grief. As the boy trains the animal, the eagle takes the boy under his wing, as well, as together they join in a journey of self-discovery and adventure. With incomparable cinematography on view, this stunning film is narrated by the forest caretaker, Danzer (Jean Reno, "The Da Vinci Code") in whom Lukas finds help and advice.

Talented and determined 16 year-old Laura is a devoted parkour enthusiast living in Prague. Her training prepares her to take on all-male rivals at an upcoming competition – if she can get past her own fears first, that is. Along comes the handsome, elusive, and skillful Luky, and Laura derails herself from her own goals: winning the parkour competition and traveling to San Francisco for a prize photo shoot. Will Laura let her fear of heights and of taking chances hold her back? Can she make the final leap of faith to stay true to her dreams and her identity?

Young Wrestlers

Dir. Mete Gumurhan

Facets Theater 1

Sunday, October 30 | 5:00PM 90 min

Netherlands/Turkey Screened in Turkish with English subtitles.

At the Wrestling Training Centre in Amasya, a city in north-central Anatolia, boys ages 10 to 18 live, study, and train competitively in Greco-Roman style wrestling. The film follows 12-year-old boys as they are preparing for a competition, most coming from poor villages, some separated from their families for the first time. The boys' sportsmanship and camaraderie strengthens as they get closer to their dreams. Along the way, individual challenges arise, from Baran's weight struggles, Beytullah's nosebleeds, concerned adults, and peer pressure for star Mohammed to live up to expectations. Beautifully shot, and a great snapshot of young athlete experiences, the film received a special mention at this season's Berlinale.

Facets Theater 1
 Sunday, October 30 | 7:00PM 99 min

Russia Screened in Russian with English subtitles
 Film contains coarse language.

"The Pitch" is a rugged street soccer court in a modest residential area, central to the community that built it years ago. Teen Kostya and his pals love playing this fast-paced street style whenever they can. Unlike his teammates, Kostya dreams of a spot on a professional team. One day, the court's ownership is challenged by a group of "upstart" immigrants. With more resources and dreams of his own, opposing star player Damir pursues the sport professionally, too. Unwilling to share their home turf, Kostya schemes to thwart the competition, pitching locals against wealthier newcomers. Setting aside their individual dreams and their parents' wishes, the boys hustle to prove their merit - past fleeting soccer wins.

Facets Theater 1
Tuesday, November 1 | 6:00PM 75 min

The stories in this collection of shorts identify bullying behavior and demonstrate how some characters rise above them. In one short, what starts as a silly situation ends up ludicrous gossip, not even recognized by the person who started it. In another short, Silvia is pushed into hosting a sleepover with new school friends, but discovers she is not the only one with secrets she hesitates to share. In the last real-life film, Michelle must manage her diet in order to make a permanent, positive change in her health. It takes courage and her family's support for her to silence the fears of bullying behavior, in the process.

Help, I Shrunk My Teacher!

Dir. Sven Unterwaldt

Music Box Theatre 1

Sunday, November 6 | 11:00AM 90 min

Austria/Germany Screened in German with English subtitles.

Doctor Schmill-Gössenwein is easily the meanest teacher ever at 11 year-old Felix's new school, and she's the school principal too! Felix is the new kid at an established private school, and just when he needs to be on top of his game, he accidentally shrinks Doctor Schmill-Gössenwein - to six inches! The duo is now in a real pickle. Joined by clever and fearless Emma, the oddball group sets themselves against both the school bully and the devious School Inspector, who's connived to take the principal's place. The group comes up with a series of riddles and ruses to right-size the school, and the principal, to boot. The clock is ticking

If You Want to Sing Out, Sing Out

Music Box Theatre 2

The characters in this short film collection find new friends and find also that a little empathy goes a long way. When Alice is picked on by mean girls for her inventive hobby, new friend Stanley helps her turn the situation around, in a science-tastic solution. In a hilarious mockumentary, Rory is a "repeat" rascal, frequently sent to the principal's office for unruly behavior. Can his classmates forgive him, as well as get him out of trouble, for good?

Follow Your Heart

Facets Theater 1
 Sunday, November 6 | 1:00PM 74 min

The characters in this collection of films are looking to share their hopes, dreams, and maybe their hearts. In one short, Remi's musical attempts to impress his crush seem futile until he discovers that sometimes the language of love is seen, not heard. He learns an entirely new ways of communicating, but will he succeed? In one film, Nicò may be mute, but his lively character speaks volumes. Even though Anna was with him only a short time, can the big-town girl forget this happy, small-town boy?

Whole New Game

Facets Theater 1
 Sunday, November 6 | 3:00PM 74 min
Films contain coarse language.

In one film, Diembe says he always learned to "turn the other cheek." But what happens when you run out of cheeks? Relentlessly picked on by the class bully as the only immigrant of color in his new school in England, it takes Diembe's inner courage and quiet strength to persevere and thrive. In another short, despite expectations, one boy isn't convinced the school soccer scene is for him. Instead he is surprised to find he prefers the pace of boule!

FESTIVAL CLOSING NIGHT

CLOSING NIGHT AWARDS

Presentation Sunday,
November 6th 6:00 P.M.

Feel the anticipation at the Closing Night Awards Ceremony for the 33rd Annual Chicago International Film Festival. This exciting night of surprises promises to be one to remember, as filmmakers, celebs, Festival friends and invited guests wait on the edge of their seats for the awards—including the prestigious Oscar-qualifying categories (live-action short film/animated short film)! After the ceremony, everyone's a winner at the Closing Party, where participants meet to close the curtains on the 2016 Festival with food, music, and fun!

Featuring:

Boo! Bash: the Movie!

Filmed on location at BOO! Bash 2016, the coolest, zaniest, spookiest family Halloween party in Chicago and the official fun-filled kickoff to this year's Festival, Boo! Bash: The Movie!, chronicles the eerie adventures of a group of young cinephiles who find that the classic horror flicks and monster movies they've checked out at Facets' Videotheque will cost them more than a simple rental fee. Every guest who attends BOO! Bash 2016 is part of the cast, and three lucky little BOO! Bash partyers (TBA!) will walk the red carpet November 7th as the short film's named and credited stars.
